Thailys Rodríguez - Graphic Designer

Thailys Rodríguez is from Venezuela, where she is studying Graphic Design at the "Antonio José de Sucre" University.

From an early age she has been passionate about art in its various forms, from drawing to traditional painting, which led her attention to graphic design as a professional career. In the last 5 years she has dedicated herself to reinforcing her training with courses in graphic design, digital marketing, community management as well as putting her knowledge into practice as a freelance designer. She specializes in design work for social media and brand identity.

She is a person who easily adapts to her work environment with responsibility and good disposition... Read More
