The Serving Immigrants Team Successfully Held The Inaugural Case Review Event In Clewiston, With Participation From The Firm's Attorneys And Legal Team.

On July 27th, the first case review event was held at our Clewiston office, bringing together more than 30 people interested in regularizing their immigration status. Among the attendees, some were clients seeking updates on their cases, while others received good news, such as the approval of their permits, residencies, visas, and so on. There were also new clients who arrived with great enthusiasm and hope to begin their immigration process.
