

Did You Miss Your Hearing?

This information is not intended, nor should it be construed in any way, as legal advice. The information does not extend or limit the jurisdiction of the Immigration Courts as established by law and regulation. Nothing in this packet shall limit the discretion of Immigration Judges to act in accordance with law and regulation.

DID YOU MISS YOUR HEARING?

If you missed your hearing, the Judge may have closed your case and ordered you removed from the United States in your absence (known as an in absentia order of removal). To reopen your case, you need to file a “Motion to Reopen an In Absentia Order” in writing with the Court, and with the Department of Homeland Security at 333 S. Miami Avenue, Suite 200, Miami, Florida 33130.

The motion should contain the following information:

- Your name, address and telephone number.
- The date and time of your last hearing.
- Explain, in as much detail as possible, why you missed your hearing. You must show that you missed your hearing because of “exceptional circumstances” such as:
 - a. You did not receive your hearing notice.
 - b. You were in federal or state custody/jail/prison.
 - c. You or your parent or your child was the victim of battery or extreme cruelty (i.e. domestic violence).
 - d. You or your parent or child was seriously ill or died.
 - e. Any other serious reason like the examples listed above.
- Include documents and evidence to show why you missed your hearing.
- Complete the “Alien Change of Address Form” (Form EOIR-33/IC).
- The motion should be filed with a cover page (see sample enclosed).
- You may need to pay a fee, please ask at the 7th floor filing window about fees for Motions to Reopen In Absentia Orders.

When to File Your Motion:

- You can file your motion at any time if (1) you missed your hearing because you did not receive your hearing notice or (2) because you were in federal or state custody/jail/prison. You must file your motion within 180 days of the hearing you missed, if you missed that hearing for any other reason.

Note: You cannot be removed while the Judge is deciding your Motion to Reopen an In Absentia Order.

Alien's Change of Address Form/ Immigration Court

If you move or change your phone number, the law requires you to file this Change of Address Form with the Immigration Court. You must file this form within five (5) working days of a change in your address or phone number. You will only receive notification as to the time, date, and place of hearing or other official correspondence at the address which you provide. Changes in address or telephone numbers communicated through any means except this form, e.g., pleadings, motion papers, correspondence, telephone calls, applications for relief, etc. will not be recognized and the address information and record will remain unchanged.

Failure to appear at any hearing before an Immigration Judge, when notice of that hearing or other official correspondence was served on you or sent to the address you provided, may result in one or more of the following actions:

- If you are not already detained, you may be taken into custody by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and held for further action; and

If you are in removal proceedings:

Your hearing may be held in your absence under Section 240 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA), and an order of removal may be entered against you. Furthermore, you may become ineligible for the following forms of relief from removal for a period of 10 years after the date of the entry of the final order:

1. Voluntary Departure as provided for in Section 240B of the INA;
2. Cancellation of Removal as provided for in Section 240A of the INA;
3. Adjustment of Status or Change of Status as provided for in Section(s) 245, 248, or 249 of the INA.

If you are in deportation proceedings:

Your hearing may be held in your absence under Section 242B of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) (1995), and an order of deportation may be entered against you. Furthermore, you may become ineligible for the following forms of relief from deportation for a period of 5 years after the date of the entry of the final order:

1. Voluntary Departure as provided for in Section 242(b) of the INA (1995);
2. Suspension of Deportation or Voluntary Departure as provided for in Section 244 of the INA (1995);
3. Adjustment of Status or Change of Status as provided for in Section(s) 245, 248, or 249 of the INA (1995).

If you are in exclusion proceedings:

Your application for admission to the United States may be considered withdrawn, and your hearing may be held in your absence and an order of exclusion and deportation entered against you.
